Any offer of employment will be contingent upon satisfactory results of a criminal background check. Ohio law disqualifies individuals with certain criminal backgrounds from employment in public schools.

Pre-employment drug testing applies to individuals whom the Wapakoneta City School District intends to hire or use, on a permanent or temporary basis, as commercial motor vehicle drivers. Applicants may be prospective employees or current employees who have served in other capacities and who wish to become a driver and must obtain and maintain a CDL. All applicants will be required to submit to a drug and alcohol screen. A verified positive drug test result will disqualify the applicant for employment.
